GERMANS DRIVEN BACK 25 MILES

Petrograd Reports Favorable News From Eastern Front.

LIBAU IS BOMBARDED.

Muscovites Claim They Have Gained Decided Victory Between Vistul and Warthe

Petrograd, November 24—The German forces engaged in a hot battle about Lodz have been driven back twenty-five miles west of that point, says an official statement from the war office, which also reports 'favorable news from the front between the Vistula and Warthe, where the Germans have retreated."

Other reports declare the Germans who had reached Lodz are now at Sadek, twenty-five miles to the rear of the easternmost point reached by the force which advanced through Poland from Kalicz.

An official statement today announced the second bombardment of the port of Libau, on the Baltic, by the German fleet.

"The Germans made a special target of the most populous and open parts of the town," the statement declares. "A great number of peaceable inhabitants, a majority of whom were women and children, were victims of the German barbarism."

An official statement today declare "Between the Vistula and the Warthe the Germans have retreated from the line running from Strykow to Kogierz, Sadek, Zouskawola, and Wozniki."

Sadek is twenty- five miles southwest of Lodz. Strykow is twenty miles to the south and west of Lowicz, and the remainder of the line then extends to the southwest.

Unofficial Russian reports here would seem to indicate that the Russians have gained a decided victory between the Vistula and Warthe. Two entire German regiments are declared to have been captured and the invading army repulsed at all points.

Other reports assert the German force appears to have been practically broken in two, one section taking a southward line of retreat and the other withdrawing to the northwest.

The official statement, however, makes no mention of a retreat to the northwest. It is confined to the announcement of a withdrawal along the line to the southwest.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Henry Siegel, the New York banker merchant who has been on trial at Geneseo, N. Y., since November 9 on charges of grand larceny, was found guilty last night of a misdemeanor in obtaining credit on alleged false financial statements. Justice William W. Clarke at once sentenced Siegel to pay a fine of $1,000 and to serve ten months in Monroe county penitentiary. Stay of execution of the prison sentence was granted until the second Monday in June and bail was fixed at $25,000.

Five members of a crew of lifesavers, trying to reach the steam schooner Hanalei, ashore on Duxbury Reef, 9 miles north of San Francisco, were drowned last night.

A dispatch to the Havas Agency from Petrograd says: "Advices received here from Libau are to the effect that the Germans have opened a second bombardment on the city, which was especially directed against the most open and populous quarters. A great many inoffensive persons, principally women, and a number of children were killed.

The Berliner Tageblatt relates that in the village of Veveren 150 Bavarian soldiers who had taken part in the siege of Antwerp drank 1,485 liters of beer within two hours. Each Bavarian soldier thus drank in round figures nearly twenty pints within two hours. It has been calculated by an officer mathematically inclined that the weight of the bullets required to kill a man in this war is something like 168 pounds, more than the weight of the average man himself. This is the case, in spite of the immense improvements in modern weapons as compared with those in previous great wars.

Rev. Dr. M. B. Williams, of Chicago, has an "evangelist's ideas of the average church member." They are: The average church member is a drone or critic rather than a real worker. Evangelists count on only 2 per cent of their congregation going out in the streets to save souls. Many men who study for the ministry are those who failed in business, in health, or otherwise. Many girls who give their hearts to Christ do so after the heart has been shattered by an unhappy love affair. Half of all church members are not adapted for spreading the gospel because their lips are not clean from dirty stories, filthy gossip, or beer.

The correspondent of the New York Post is able to state on the most reliable authority that the British superdreadnought Audacious was accidetally blown up by a British mine and not by a German submarine or German mine. The Audacious was either laying mines or convoying mines layers in the waters where the accident occurred. The operations were being carried on with the utmost secrecy.

James C. Potts and Garfield Watson, a helper, lost their lives while trying to rescue valuable race horses from a fire which destroyed the boarding stables conducted by Potts in Montrose, Pa., yesterday.

A Copenhagen dispatch reports that Prince August Wilhelm is in a serious condition as a result of injuries suffered in a recent auto accident while he was on a military trip.

Italy yesterday reiterated her intention to remain neutral, according to a news agency dispatch from Berlin, which stated that the Italian foreign minister had given a final decision to the Italian Ambassador to Germany.

At least six 14 inch guns are expected to guard the entrances to the Panama Canal. These monsters are later to be duplicated for the Philippine defenses. Smaller guns for the Panama Canal defenses are being rushed.

KAISER TO MAKE VICIOUS ATTACKS

Heavy German Reinforcements Moving West Through Belgium

RUSHING LARGE GUNS.

Great Quantities of Supplies Belonging to Invaders Abandoned in Inundated Sections.

Paris, Nov. 24—While vigorous attacks upon the allied lines are being made along the Aisne and in the Argonne, heavy German re-enforcements are moving through Belgium toward the west.

It is accepted here that another desperate attempt of the forces of the Kaiser to hack their way through the British and French lines is about to be made. There is, as yet, nothing to indicate where the blow will fall. Heavy Krupp guns are being rushed toward the front in great numbers. The activity along the coast continues and the bombardment of Ypres, Soissons and Rheims as well as the fire upon the allied trenches is kept up with vigor.

The armies between Nieuport and Dixmude are now practically caught under a thin mantle of ice. Great quantities of German supplies, abandoned in the inundated section are now "frozen in."

GERMANS LOSE TWO BOATS

British Patroling Vessel Rams Submarine of Enemy.

London Nov. 24—The secretary of the admiralty announced that the German submarine boat U-18, which was reported off the north coast of Scotland, yesterday morning, was rammed by a British patrolling vessel and foundered.

The submarine boat U-18, of the German navy, was built in 1912. She had a cruising radius of 2,000 miles and a speed of 14 knots above water and 8 knots submerged.

The patrolling ship rammed the submarine at 12:20 o'clock this afternoon. The U-18 was not seen again until 1:20, when she appeared on the surface flying a white flag. Shortly after this she foundered just as the British destroyer Garry come alongside. The destroyer rescued three officers and 23 of the submarine's crew only one being drowned.

OLD BOAT CLOSES CAREER

Steamer Endeavor Formerly of Confederate Navy, to be Sold.

After fifty-two years of efficient service with the coast and geodetic survey fleet the old steamer Endeavor has passed her days of usefulness, according to a board of experts, by which she was examined at Baltimore recently, and will be taken to Curtis Bay to remain until sold to the highet bidder.

The old steamer had an eventful career in the early years of her existence. She was built with funds contributed by the women of the confederacy for service as a gunboat but was captured by the Federal forces when about completed.

She did duty through the war, and at its close was turned over to the coast and geodetic survey service for duty in gathering data for charts of Atlantic coast harbors. It is stated there is not a portion of the coast from Eastport Me., to Key West, and in the gulf to the Rio Grande, she has not visited.

WORK AT THE HOSPITAL.

Report of Free Work Shows Much Good is Accomplished.

It would be well for the general public who have contributed so liberally to the fund for a new hospital, to know something of the amount of free work done every year by the Alexandria Hospital.

During the ten months past January 1st to October 30th, 1914, there have been.

Registered free patients, 147.

Dispensary cases 167.

Gratuitous nursing, days 1791.

Children's ward patients, 34.

Free days' nursing, 827.

The registered free patients have had their laundry, board, medicine, surgical operations, dressings, gauze, cotton all expenses free.

From the dispensary the cases were treated free, bandages, medicines, dressings, to all free of cost and in many cases treated daily for some time.

Just at present there are nine free patients in the hospital.

Besides this in the children's ward free work is largely done and one instance was when two small children were taken there sick with typhoid fever while their poor little mother lay ill at home with the same disease, unable to nurse them. Another child with typhoid was nursed there its father and mother not being able to care for it. A case of a tiny tot of two years, after being treated twice was a third time taken to the hospital and cared for there 201 days free of cost, finally leaving there fat and well. One poor little foundling was kept for 15 days until a home was secured for it. Perhaps this will show the amount of charitable good work done by the hospital in addition to its numberless paid emergency cases maternity cases and surgical cases, so when Thanksgiving comes remember the many poor and needy and all and any donations at the hospital will be most gratefully received and used.

CAMEL CORPS IN AN ENGAGEMENT

British Compelled to Retreat Before Superior Numbers.

WAR IS ON IN EGYPT.

Hostile Band Advances under a Flag of Truce and Then Opens Fire upon English Troops.

Cairo, Egypt Nov. 24.—Reports of an engagement between British and Moslem camel corps, in which twenty of the enemy were killed before the British force retreated to avoid envelopment by a superior cavalry force, were received here today.

One Egyptian and one Indian officer of the British forces were killed together with twelve men. Three men were wounded.

The party of Maharaas, Bikanirs and Indian camel corps commanded by Captain Chope, was patrolling the neighborhood of Bireelunss Gatia. A hostile camel corps advanced under a white flag on the 20th, and then opened an attack on the British.

WRIT OF ERROR REFUSED.

Attorneys for Leo M. Frank Will Make Further Applications.

Washington Nov. 24.—Attorneys for Leo M. Frank, under sentence of death for the murder of Mary Phagan, a factory girl, in Atlanta, Ga., in 1913, will carry to other members of the Supreme Court of the United States the application of a writ of error in Frank's behalf which was refused yesterday by Justice Lamar.

This announcement was made last night by Harry Alexander, of Frank's counsel, who will remain in Washington to continue the attempt to get intervention by the Supreme Court on the ground that Frank's constitutional rights were violated by the fact that the verdict was rendered during his absence from the courtroom.

The granting of the writ would act as a stay, and the judgment of the Georgia courts could not be executed until the Supreme Court had made whatever disposition of the case it saw fit.

There were some indications that the next move in the fight for Frank's life might be directed toward efforts to obtain clemency from the governor of Georgia or the State pardon board. Later, however, the decision was reached to exhaust all means of securing favorable action here before adopting any other course of action.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 24.—"I still have hope that the death sentence against me will not be executed," declared Leo M. Frank in the county jail here yesterday, when told that Justice Lamar, in Washington, had refused to grant a writ of error to take his case before the United States Court for review. The prisoner declined to make further comment.

Following receipt here of the news of Justice Lamar's decision Solicitor General Hugh M. Dorsey said he would take steps at once to have Frank re-sentenced.

The State supreme court is expected to hand down a remittitur Wednesday, and the solicitor general plans to have Frank brought before the Fulton county superior court Friday or Saturday to have him resentenced and the date set the third time for his execution.

TO MEET NEAR THIS CITY

Virginia Baptist Association Turn Down Invitation From Richmond

The General Baptist Association of Virginia selected Clarendon Church Alexandria county at their meeting in Bristol yesterday as the meeting place next year, thus overruling the committee on nominations, which recommended Grace Street Church Richmond. The opening session will be held November 18.

The reports of the Orphanage Board and the Woman's Missionary Board were submitted. Addresses on orphanage work were made by P. H. Chiel and J. W. Kincheloe.

Mrs. Julia P. Thomas submitted the report of the work of the missionary societies, which showed a total of 1,522 societies, including 24 organized last year. The Virginia societies contributed last year $76,850, with an expense account of $3,995.

With Dr. W. W. Hamilton, of Lynchburg, presiding, the Sunday school report of the Southern Baptist convention was read. This report recommends the adoption of new names for the Bible classes. The contribution to this work have increased in four years from $19,000 to $376,000. A resolution offered by Dr. Hamilton, to make January a month of special self-denial in the interest of Baptist missionaries in foreign lands who have been cut off from their bases of supply by the European war, was adopted.

The report of the Baptist Young People's Union was presented by the Rev. J. T. Watts of Richmond.

MINNESOTA AND TEXAS REMAIN

Two Ships Only Sign Of American Authority at Vera Cruz.

Villareal and Obregon Placed in Penitentiary by General Blanquo in Charge in Mexico City.

Vera Cruz, Mexico Nov. 24.—Two United States battleships, the Texas and Minnesota, swinging with the tide at anchor in Vera Cruz harbor are the only signs of American authority remaining today in the Mexican seaport.

The evacuation of the city by Major General Funston's infantry and 2,000 marines, completed before nightfall yesterday, left General Candido Aguilar and his Carranza troops in sole charge. It is believed Carranza will enter Vera Cruz shortly to take the reins of his provisional government of the republic from this city.

Juarez Mexico, Nov. 24.—Announcement was made in an official dispatch from President Guiterrez that General Lucio Blanco, who has assumed control in Mexico City, has caused the arrest and imprisonment in the national penitentiary of Gens. Alvaro Obergon, Eduardo Hay and Antonio Villareal, the Carranza commanders with whom he had been in conference in regard to the evacuation of the city by Carranza forces.

The three generals are charged with treason in failing to carry out the pledges made to the Aguas Calientes convention. General Villareal formerly was president of the Aguas Calientes convention.

FIRE IN MARYLAND

Wharf and Old Steamer's Hull Destroyed at Summer Resort.

Fire Sunday night destroyed the wharf at Washington Park, the colored excursion resort on the Maryland side of the Potomac nearly opposite Alexandria. The hull of the old steamer River Queen, which has been lying there for the past two years was also destroyed.

This is the second fire that has occurred at Washington Park in recent years, the roller coaster and several buildings having been burned about three years ago. The steamer River Queen, whose hull was destroyed by the fire, was also burned several years ago, and after being wrecked the hulk was taken to Washington Park and shoved on the mud flats out of the way.

The light caused by the fire attracted considerable attention among people residing on the river front.

Another fire broke out last night a short distance east of the park. The river was illuminated for some distance by the blaze. The fire seemed to be near the old Rozier mansion on the hill, but it was impossible to tell whether it was a dwelling or large barn which was burning.

CRUTCHFIELD ROBBED.

Richmond's Police Justice Relieved of Fifty Dollars.

Richmond, Nov. 24.—Despite the efforts to keep the matter a secret it has leaked out in Police Court that Justice Crutchfield has lost $50 and it is the belief of his friends that he was the victim of pickpockets.

The judge was going home Saturday on a street car when he missed the money from his pockets. He recalled being jostled pretty heavily as he boarded the car, but he refuses to believe that pickpockets mingled him out.

The money consisted principally of one and five dollar notes in a roll.

The police share the belief of the judge's friends that he was robbed, and they are doing everything in their power to apprehend the thief.

Though he insists that he lost the money, the judge is unable to explain how it got out of his pocket.

Mr. Eugene Wilfred Corbin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Corbin, of this city, and Miss Elizabeth Rogers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rodgers, of Fairfax county, were married last evening in St. Mary's parsonage by the Rev. L. F. Kelly. The ceremony was followed by a reception given by the groom's parents. The bride was dressed in a blue suit and wore a bouquet of white carnations. Mr. and Mrs. Corbin will reside at 721 Queen street.

Miss Clara A. Moore has returned to this city for the winter and will be the guest of Mrs. G. Wm. Ramsay.

"Red Letter Day" was observed last night at the Children's Home by the Allison W. C. T. U.. The program consisted of songs and recitations and an interesting address was was delivered by Judge C. E. Nicol.

RECITAL AT ST. MARY'S.

Pronounced One of the Prettiest Ever Given in This City.

The recital given last night at St. Mary's Academy by the pupils in the classes of expression dancing and physical education was pronounced by many of the audience one of the prettiest of its kind ever given in the city.

The opening number showed the beauty of rythmical movement and being the work of the junior class was more elementary than the more advanced work of the seniors in rythmetical interpretation. Both exercises showed grace and ease that in most instances come only as the reward of careful efficient training and persistent practice on the part of the pupil, proving that social and aesthetic dancing and physical education should have a place in the modern school curriculum.

The second number on the program was an interesting monologue by Virginia Wilkins. Though still a tiny girl Virginia is fast becoming one of St. Mary's "stage favorites." "Alone" was pathetically rendered by the gifted Miss Florence Evans, of Washington. In "Her Debut" Miss Snider, also of Washington portrayed very gracefully the fluttering young debutante arrayed for her first ball. Miss Evelyn Howard in "An Embarrassing Incident" showed decided talent along humorous lines.

Miss Emma Hubbard, of Washington, in a "Familiar Character" introduced the audience to the modern girl with the telephone habit. Miss Hubbard's work last evening showed marked improvement.

The musical numbers of the program included two violin solos and a violin duet by Winifred Bayne and Ruth Morgan and a piano duet by the Misses Cook from Washington. All were excellently rendered. To many the "hit" of the evening was the work of the "tiny tots" in their lullaby to their dolls. The Humanophone a clever number along humorous lines was the work of the junior class in expression and was well received.

A song interpretation by the senior class in expression proved an effective piece of work. This was the closing number of the program.

Last evening's recital was in reality only part of the test necessary for private pupils to obtain the blue ribbon or first degree in junior year of expression. The following were successful: Florence Evans, Evelyn Howard, Emma Hubbard, Jennie Snider and Virginia Wilkins.

EARLY MORNING WRECK

C. & O. Freight Collides With Southern Train at Seminary—Brakeman Runalde Killed.

In a freight wreck on the Southern Railway at Seminary, Fairfax county, Va., two miles from Alexandria, at 4:55 o'clock this morning, James Edward Runaldue of Alexandria, a brakeman was instantly killed and his his body almost totally incinerated. Two other brakemen, W. G. Bledsoe and D. L. Norford, who were asleep in the caboose with Runaldue, escaped without injuries although they were lying within a few feet of the man who was killed. The three men were deadheading to Alexandria in a caboose on Southern Railway northbound freight train, third 74, with W. S. Anger, engineer and F. O. Purvis conductor. The train took the siding at Seminary when it was struck by a northbound freight train of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway, with Engineer Carter and Conductor Blake, in charge. The C. and O. engine ploughed its way through the caboose on the rear of the Southern train and also through a stock car loaded with 30 cows. Bledsoe and Norford were thrown from the caboose but Runaldue was killed. Every one of the cows in the stock car were also killed. The caboose caught fire and Runaldue's body was almost entirely destroyed.

The dead man resided in this city with his brother Henry R. Runaldue, at 109 north Patrick street. His remains were brought to Demaine's undertaking establishment here and will be shipped to Manassas where his parents reside. He was 25 years old and unmarried.

He was a member of the Eagles and a meeting of that organization will be held tonight at 7:30 o'clock to take action on his death.

BRIDGE COMPLETED.

Structures to Form Part of Great Highway.

The pile driver and outfit, belonging to Clarke & Winston Company, which was sent a week ago to Dogue Creek, Va., to build two small highway bridges over branches of the run, has completed work on one of the structures and has been moved to the other one, about half a mile distant which will be completed in about ten days. These bridges, it is stated, are part of the new road system of Fairfax county, Va., and will be used by the Virginia part of the Quebec to Florida highway. They are both substantially built structures, capable of carrying a heavy load.

The Clarke & Winston Company also has one of its large pile drivers at Woodbridge, Va., building the false work on which the new steel railroad bridge of the Washington-Richmond line will be laid in process of construction. It is stated it will be well to the spring before the new bridge is finished and ready for trains to pass over it.

AT WASHINGTON THEATRES.

Poli's—"The Gamblers."

In the presence of an audience which filled every seat in the big playhouse and overflowed into the section reserved for standees, the new Poli Players made their debut last evening in Charles Klein's "The Gamblers."

Judging by their work last evening, the new company will deserve the approval and support of all stock loving theater goers, for it possesses that attribute without which a repertoire company, no matter what its individual merits is inexpressibly poor—balance. Last night's performance of "The Gamblers" was not only remarkably smooth, and presented with such careful stage management that the final curtain fell before 11 o'clock, but the acting throughout was evenly balanced and conscientious and there was a highly creditable air of repression, which is too often lacking in stock company productions.

Like all of Klein's plays except "The Music Master," "The Gamblers" is constructed with a thesis for a foundation—in this instance the "money trust" investigation which held the country in its grip at the time the piece was written. All of Klein's master touches appear in the play, and the curtain speech for the second act is one of the strongest he has ever composed.

In Miss Lillian Kemble the management of Poli's has secured a leading woman with personality, stage presence and ability—a triumvirate which is essential to the success of a stock company.

Charles Mackay plays Wilbur Emerson with a directness and lack of mannerisms which promises much for his future characterizations. He is possessed of a robust physique and a voice which carries to all parts of the theater without effort.

Corbett Morris the juvenile of the new company, and Robert Lowe, who is probably doomed to play the villains, were both well cast last evening.

Gayety—"The Beauty Parade."

"The Beauty Parade," a two-act farce with musical settings presented by a capable company of comedians, singers, dancers and chorus, is the show at the Gayety this week. It has lots of life and ginger in it and with a liberal sprinkling of catchy songs and dances. The principal comedy part is that of Ezra Slocum, village postmaster and constable, taken by George F. Hayes. Mr. Hayes is one of the best portrayers of "rube" characters on any stage, and the vociferous greeting accorded him by Gayety patrons yesterday was evidence of his popularity here. He has a good side partner in Ambark Ali, who takes the part of Andy Cole, a gymnastic comedian who makes a lot of fun. Miss Lilla Brennan, as Vera, is a most personable young woman. Hoping Lilla doesn't get proud over it, it might be remarked that she is one of the handsomest women in burlesque. And she can sing, too, and does it with good effect. Miss Hildegarde Stone, blond and buxom, has several excellent songs which she sings well. Miss Ruth Barbour also sings some good numbers and she and Charles Tyson have two interesting dances. The chorus is a winner.

The popular sailor shapes in their new and charming effects are seen to especial advantage in the materials and shades of the newest character. Soft Closefitting Tubans are also very pretty and becoming.

Most effective combinations are produced with skunk, beaver, monkey and fitch fur trimmings used alone and again with dark shaded grapes, other fruits and beautiful flowers. Shaded ostrich feathers, all sorts of pompons, fancy aigrettes and broadostrich lend themselves most admirably to the new and piquant models of the hour.

U. S. TROOPS LEAVE MEXICO.

The action of the United States in withdrawing the troops which have during the past seven months been in Vera Cruz is being viewed through different lenses by people of this country. Many of the inhabitants of Vera Cruz are not convinced that the time has come when Mexico can be allowed to go it alone. While we have from the first believed that the United States should take the bull by the horns and bring about pacific conditions in the neighboring republic, we prefer to believe President Wilson sees his way clear for the action he has taken. Many, however in the United States and multitudes in Mexico fear the withdrawal of the forces will prove premature while factions are still fighting for supremacy.

Our government is acting through the best motives, and has no desire to keep troops in the land of the Montezumas any longer than possible, desiring to live neighborly and without causing suspicion of any intention upon the part of the Unted States to attempt to dictate to Mexico.

It is earnestly hoped that the people of Mexico will bring their petty disputes to an early close in order that peace may again reign among our neighbors.

"GET TOGETHER" MEETING.

The Retail Merchants Association of this city have perfected arrangements for their banquet tonight, and an interesting occasion is anticipated. State officials of the organization are expected to be present, and the exchange of notes will doubtless be of practical benefit to all who may be present.

These gatherings of men composing the business pulse of the community are beneficial, as much is learned from one another.

Several years ago the members of the Retail Merchants' Association with many of their friends mingled at a banquet, and all felt at its close that it was good for them to have been there.

Banquets of the business men of Alexandria are not annual events. They are given at opportune times, however, when the times are auspicious for a "pull-altogether" in enterprises which are calculated to expand the commercial life of the city.

Several such feasts have been given at times by the Chamber of Commerce and other similar organizations, at which practical men have thrown out suggestions which all should have heard and acted upon.

NEW REVENUE TAXES

(Communicated.)

Richmond, Va., Nov. 23rd, 1914.

Editor Alexandria Gazette:

While away from Alexandria, my heart is still with you all in our old city—and not having seen the Old Gazette since I was last in the city, I do not know what is going on, or what you are doing to inform the people as to the new revenue taxes. There is much apprehension as to how to construe the measure, but there is no misapprehension as to the penalties and fines that attach after next Saturday night— and knowing that the Gazette is ever ready to inform its readers and the community generally as to such matters, I take the liberty to ask that you give forth the following information, if it has not already appeared in your columns and even if it has, there are many who may not have read the article carefully and it will do no harm and may do much good to inform them again.

First—That all licenses not paid by Monday of next week November 30th, are bound to pay the penalty of 50 per cent or to be explicit—every dealer in tobacco, cigars, cigarettes and snuff, can get the license up to next Monday for $3.20 good to June 30th, 1915. If the licenses is not taken out Monday, on the 1st of December it will cost $4.80—and there is no power except Congress that can remit it. Every Commission Merchant, and Commercial Broker can get their license on or before next Monday for $20.00; if they wait until Tuesday they pay $30. and so on down or up the list.

All stamps must be used on and after Monday. The druggist are specially interested in this, as are all retail liquor dealers. These dealers must attach a stamp to each bottle, or package. There has been some misapprehension as to this section of the law, but that is settled, by the following ruling of the commissioners which has just been received by Collector Moncure, an hour ago, and of course applies to the entire country. The ruling came as an answer to enquiries made by Collector Moncure, and is a direct contradiction of ruling in force in 1899 under the Spanish war tax. However the language of the present law is entirely different from that of the old law.

Every dealer, should inform himself as to this matter at once as a failure to apply the stamps, now available, and report sales made since Oct. 23rd entails heavy penalities including fines and imprisonment.

The ruling follows:

Treasury Department.
Washington, Nov. 21, 1914.
L. Tax on wines.
R. C L. Moncure esq.,
Collector 2nd district,
Richmond Va.,

Sir:

Replying to your letter of the 18th instant you are informed that bottles or other containers from which wines and liquors are sold by the drink must be stamped and the person affixing same (the stamp) must cancel same by writing or stamping thereon his initials and the date when the bottle or container has been emptied, the stamp must be completely effaced and obliterated and a new one affixed at each refilling.

Respectfully
(Signed) E. Fletcher,
Deputy Commissioner
Yours Truly
A. J. Wedderburn.

Aged man Says Wife Wants to Put Him Out of Home He Bought

Cincinnati, Nov. 24—Suit to regain his former place at the family table and all the comforts befitting an aged man in his own home has been brought in the Superior Court by James Lynch Sr., seventy, a veterinary surgeon and live stock auctioneer.

He complains that after working for thirty years buying a $12,000 home and putting it in his wife's name, she compels him to sleep in a poorly furnished rear room will not let him eat at the same table with the other members of the family, and for two years has refused to cook for him.

He says she has advised him to go to the city infirmary. He asks that the court declare him half owner in the property in order to save him from the infirmary.

Judge Pugh granted a temporary injunction, preventing the wife from excluding him from the quarters and privileges he now occupies in the house.

AUTOIST HELD FOR MURDER

Richmond, Va., Nov. 24—T. S. Leake, proprietor of a printing establishment, was arrested yesterday on a technical charge of murder, following the death of Thomas E. Waldrop, who was knocked down by an automobile driven by Leake Sunday afternoon.

Waldrop was 52 years old and was engaged in the grocery business. He is survived by four children. He was crossing Beverly street, at Laurel, and became confused, stepping into the street after turning toward the sidewalk. The car, Leake says, was not going at a high rate of speed.

Noted Pythian Dead.

Suffolk, Va., Nov. 24.—General D. J. Turner, seventy years of age organizer of the Uniform Rank, Knight of Pythias and brigadier general of the uniform rank, died on Sunday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock in Norfolk. His death was sudden coming after a brief illness of which few of his friends were aware.

General Turner was also a thirty-third degree Mason and was past grand eminent commander of the Grand Commandery of Virginia.

KILLS HIS CHILD WIFE

Edward Cline Fired Three Bullets Into Her Body, Then Turned Pistol on Himself.

Covington, Va., Nov. 24—In a jealous rage Edward Cline, aged twenty-five years ,shot and killed his pretty fifteen-year-old wife at their home here Sunday evening and then turned the revolver on himself and sent a bullet through his lungs, inflicting what is believed to be a fatal wound. The quarrel started when the husband was combing his wife's hair, and found where a lock had been cut out. Cline accused his wife of infidelity, and while she was protesting her innonce, he whipped out a revolver sending a bullet through her heart and two others into her body.

Cline was a giant in build, and was well known as a semiprofessional wrestler, having met Bobby Mainfort, now physical instructor at the University of Virginia on the mat here.

MURDERED MAN IDENTIFIED

Richmond, Nov., 24—A relative of the young man who was stabbed to death on South First Street several days ago, yesterday visited the undertaking establishment where the body was lying and identified the remains as those of Eugene Crawley. Crawley has a brother residing at Centralia, and a sister-in-law living at 109 West Thirteenth Street, South Richmond.

FLEE FOR THEIR LIVES

Nitro-Glycerin Tank At Powder Mill Explodes Yesterday.

Chicago, Nov. 24—"Get under cover everybody; the nitroglycerin tank is going to let go."

This was the warning that workmen of Aetna Powder Company's plant at Aetna, Ind., received today after the warning blast of the alarm whistle had driven the workmen in all the buildings to flee for the open air.

"Which building is it? Where is the danger?" they cried when they gathered breathless by the roadside.

"It's the nitro plant," exclaimed one. "Don't you see; here comes Eddie Smetterburg, the nitro mixer, on the run."

"Look out boys!" cried Smetterburg, as he staggered into the crowd "The nitro tank is going. She began to sputter and go bad, and I pulled the whistle and got away. The fumes were so bad I hardly could get to the alarm. The tank was sputtering when I shot out of the door."

The men sought shelter and watched the nitro building with fascinated eyes. In a few minutes there was a mighty roar and the ground trembled as a cloud of timbers and machinery soared into the air. There was nothing but a hole in the ground where the nitro building had stood.

Windows were broken in the town, farm buildings damaged and people frightened in a 10 mile radius. Thanks to the warning signal no one hurt.

The workmen had been at their task of making explosives for about an hour when the alarm was sounded It was the rule for every man to seek safety in flight when the signal gave notice that some of the dangerous mixtures had begun to go wrong.

$75,000 FOR SAVING GIRL

Former Boatman Informed of Legacy After 28 Years.

Montville, Conn., Nov. 24—A bequest of $75,000 is the reward which has been given Henry A. Bolles, of this place, it was learned today, for saving a little girl from drowning in the Thames river 28 years ago.

The girl was the daughter of a Mr. Trumbull, of New York, and had fallen overboard from her father's yacht. Mr. Bolles, who was a boatman at that time, said today he remembered the father asking him his name, but he had heard nothing more from him.

Mr. Trumbull died within the last two weeks, and Mr. Bolles has just been notified of the bequest by the executors of the Trumbull estate.

UNKNOWN MAN KILLED

Richmond, Nov. 24—Stumbling across the tracks of the Richmond-Petersburg interurban line, a white man, whose body has not yet been identified, was struck and killed by a Richmond-bound car near the old Bellwood car barns, between Stops 23 and 24, last night at 7:55 o'clock.

In his examination of the body, the coroner found only a 5-cent piece, a nearly empty bottle and a small scrap of paper on which was written twice in different handwritings, the name "Richard S. O. Dougherty," and underneath "King George Street."

Lime Treatment in Tuberculosis

In the May 25, 1912, issue of the Journal of the American Medical Association appeared this statement concerning calcium (lime) medication in the treatment of pulmonary tuberculosis (consumption):

"Under the systematic, continued and persistent regime of calcium assimilation, Van Gieson has seen a number of his patients improve, undergo an exudation or partial consolidation in the lung, which then respiring wound grows to contribute to the walling off and closing of the lesions. Hand in hand with this course of events, the sputum clears up of tubercle bacilli, which finally disappear, and the patients are discharged with healed pulmonary tuberculosis."

Ethical medical journals seldom speak so positively about a remedial agent, yet this testimony coincides with that from many consumptives who have secured like results through the use of Eckman's Alterative.

Since calcium is a constituent of this remedy for pulmonary tuberculosis and allied throat and bronchial affections, its healing power may in some measure be attributed to the manner in which this element is so combined with other ingredients as to be easily assimilated by the average person and it does not irritate the stomach.

Eckman's Alterative contains no opiates, narcotics or habit-forming drugs, so it is safe to try. If your druggist is out of it, ask him to order, or send direct to
